Engaging Culturally & Linguistically Diverse Students in Your Classroom

High Quality Sheltered Instruction Training
Jan. 27-28, 2009

Training presented by
Dr. Tonnie Martinez

Dr. Tonnie Martinez is currently an Associate Director of CIMA, the Center for Intercultural and Multilingual Advocacy at Kansas State University. She is an Assistant Professor of Education, and the director of a statewide program that serves the needs of over 1,000 in-service educators who seek ESOL licensure. In this workshop, Dr. Martinez will demonstrate how teachers and students can jointly construct knowledge, building on what students bring to class. You will gain insight on how to: Change your perspective about culturally and linguistically diverse students and families, understand and accommodation readiness, recognize the assimilation issues particular to biracial students, and start applying instructional strategies tomorrow!

This two-day session is designed for all K-12 ESL teachers, K-12 content classroom teachers and ESL program directors

Downtown Kansas City Marriott located at 200 W. 12th St., Kansas City, MO.
